

JON BARTOS

Jon Bartos is an expert in human capital solutions who has coached hundreds of individuals and businesses to professional success. He enjoys mentoring and motivating others and he has made a career out of doing just that.

A graduate of Michigan State University, Jon received his BA in Communications and his MBA in Marketing and International Business from Amber University. Jon had a successful 16-year sales and management career in the AIDC industry where hiring top talent was one of his chief initiatives. After identifying a critical need for superior talent in his marketplace, Jon made the decision to start his own executive recruitment firm Jonathan Scott International.

At JSI, Jon assembled a powerful team of Top 10 award winners and sales leaders, all dedicated to JSI's founding principles of integrity and delivering "A" talent. This commitment to excellence has led to global success. Since opening its doors, JSI has won numerous international awards and is consistently ranked in the top 50 offices worldwide within the MRI Network.

Jon is one of the industry's very few yearly million dollar billers. He is an accomplished writer and speaker on all aspects of human capital and recruiting. As host of Talent Wins, a weekly talk show on 55KRC (The Talk Station 550AM), he addresses the hottest topics in the talent marketplace. With practical, sometimes brutal insight, he helps his listeners dominate the business playing field.

Jon believes in the power of individuals to transform their lives. He developed the Magnum Program, a personal coaching program that helps recruiters and professionals at all levels overcome career hurdles to get to the top of their game.

On a personal level, Jon continues to set the bar high. He has achieved national success in the Masters Level Pole Vault. He volunteers his time as a track coach for Mason High School, coaching young vaulters to new heights. In his spare time, Jon enjoys golfing, playing music, trail riding and traveling with his wife and two children.

"Over a 14-year sales and management career and six years of recruiting with MRI, I have never been part of a training session that provided me with more practical tips that will immediately increase the productivity and profitability of my desk and those I lead."

- Micah Di Sabato

"You are like a vitamin shot! You raise the bar for all of us. The simple clarity of your message combined with the passion of your delivery gives you a great future as a national trainer and speaker."

- Dan Funke, CPC
